

In the Claims

Please cancel claims 1 -3.

4. (new) A dressing adapted to treat a burn wound on a patient' skin comprising: a gel-like substrate adapted to dissolve soon after being applied to said wound, said gel-like substrate having allogenic neonatal or infant keratinocytes (sparsely seeded) grown on its upper or outer layer.